SENATOR VICKERS: (Response inaudible.)

PRESIDENT: The motion before you is the advancement of LB 415. The house is under call. All members absent from the Chamber, please return to the floor and record your presence light. The house is under call. Senator Marsh and Senator Hartnett are excused. That is the only two missing who are unexcused at the present time, so we should require 47 members here. Senator Schmit, please. Senator Lynch. Senator Rod Johnson. Senator Eret. Senator Hoagland. Senators Hoagland and Rod Johnson, the house is under call. Senator Nelson. Senators Nelson, Hoagland, Pirsch and Rod Johnson. Senators Pirsch and Nelson, the house is under call. Please come to the Chamber. Senator Rod Johnson, I guess we're waiting...I think Rod Johnson is speaking on the other side. Senator Pirsch. Here we are. We are all here now. Roll call has been requested, so please retain your silence (gavel) so that we may hear your voice vote.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken as found on page 1167 of the Legislative Journal.) 20 ayes, 27 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion to advance fails. Senator Higgins, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR HIGGINS: Mr. Chairman, I would like to request a copy of that vote from the Clerk, so that I might study how many voted against it who already have been to college. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: I assume the Clerk can provide that material for you. The call of the house is raised. I guess...The Clerk has matters for the record to read into the Journal.

CLERK: Mr. President, your Committee on Banking reports LB 431 to General File, 603 to General File, 667 to General File, all with amendments; those signed by Senator DeCamp. (See pages 1168-73 of the Legislative Journal.)
